

Activities in and around Basel

- Basel is an international and lively city with plenty of sights, bars, and restaurants
- Swimming in the Rhine river or having a drink at the shore are popular activities during the summer months
- Basel has a picturesque historic city centre to explore
 - There are almost 40 museums for you to visit!
 - The Swiss Alps are only one hour away by train! Hiking is a must!

CRE at Basel University

- You will be welcomed to our large international department of Egyptology at Basel University
- The conference programme includes:
 - 3,5 days of conference + optional day trip
 - a reception at the panoramic Rheinsprung terrace
 - a conference dinner at the buzzing Markthalle (international food from local producers)
 - a free visit to the Antikenmuseum Basel and the Egyptian collection
- Three keynote speakers from different Swiss departments will present their latest research:

Prof. Dr. Susanne Bickel (Basel)

Prof. Dr. Philippe Collombert (Geneva)

Dr. Giuseppina Lenzo (Lausanne)

Practicalities

Basel is located in the centre of Europe and easily reachable by train, plane, or bus:

-  Train station Basel SBB (Switzerland and France) and Basel Badischer Bahnhof (Germany)
-  Euro-Airport Basel-Mulhouse-Freiburg
-  Flixbus and Flixtrein

Housing is available from CHF 35-40 per night

Note: cheaper accommodation can be found across the border in France and Germany (30 min with public transport or bike)

Getting around in town is easy and affordable (walking, bus, bike)

Note: most hotels in Basel offer free public transport tickets

Budget and Financing

Thinking that Switzerland is expensive? It is also generous! We already have confirmation for financial support to cover all basic costs (venue, coffee breaks, keynotes, ...) and will approach further potential sponsors to provide:

- Travel grants for presenters who need financial support
- Reduced cost for conference dinner and lunch
- Financial support for day trip
